DANNY HERMANN

FINE ART ARTIST & MASTER STUDENT

DANNY HERMANN

EXHIBITIONS (SELECTION)

BORN: 1991 in Greiz, Germany

EDUCATION: Master student (Meisterschüler) of professor Ralf Kerbach and diploma in fine arts at the University of Fine Arts (HfbK) in Dresden, Germany

FAVORITE ARTISTS: Wolfgang Petrick, Ralf Kerbach, Otto Dix

HOMEPAGE: www.dannyhermann.com

ABOUT THE ART: The artist primarily deals in his paintings critically with topics, which seems far away, but already knocking on our doors. He wants to draw attention to problems and encourage rethinking. This accomplishes the artist, with using an expressive style, scenic ductus, textual allusions and intensely nuanced colour shading.
